

XM Radio provides much better service then the FM competitors. FM radio has declined significantly in recent years, so I switched to XM radio and love every minute of it. Hopefully the new competition will encourage FM radio to improve their services.